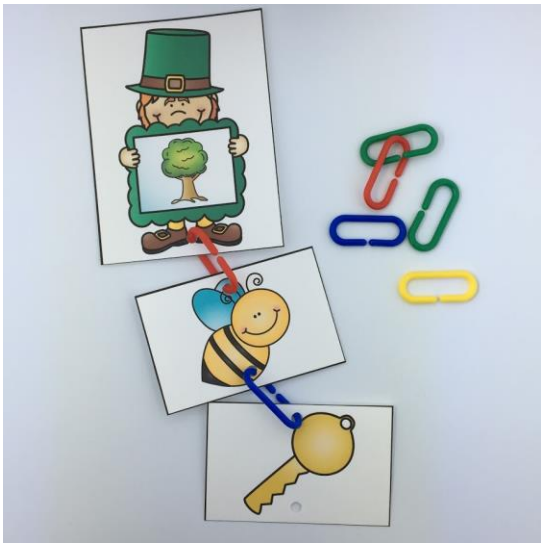
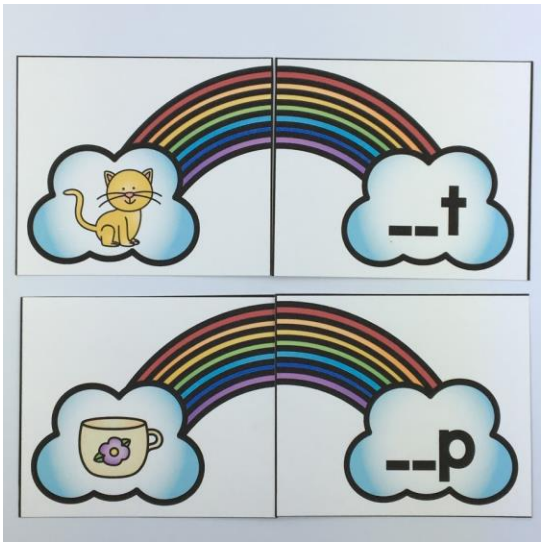
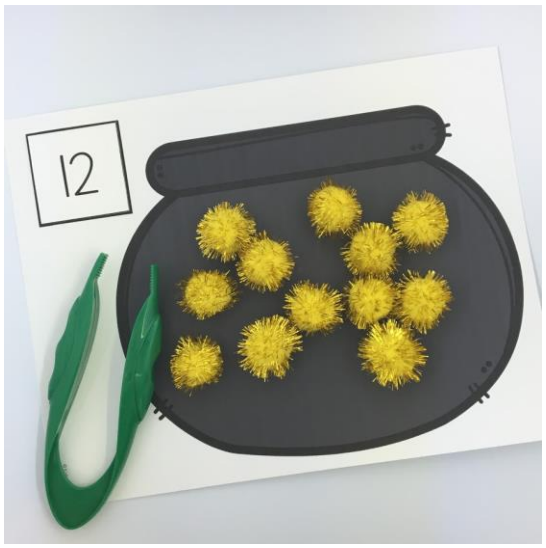
Morning Work Tubs
for March







By Katie Roltgen * resourcesbymrsroltgen.com

About this Resource

Are you looking for an alternative to traditional paper-and-pencil morning work?

Are you looking for hands-on, developmentally-appropriate classroom activities?

Are you doing morning work tubs, but struggling to compile enough activities for all of your students?

You are in luck! I created this set of morning work tub activities to help teachers plan and prepare for morning work tubs. My activities use supplies and manipulatives commonly found in most classrooms, such as playdough, counting bears, plastic cubes, and more! Take a peek at the 20 activities included in this pack!

Rhyming Leprechaun Link-Up

St. Patrick's Day Pictures

Shamrock Cut and Punch

Rainbow Final Consonant Matching

Colorful Pots of Gold

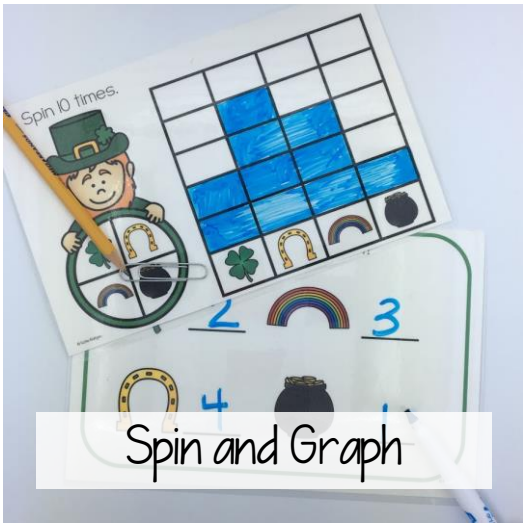
Gold Subtraction Smash

Good as Gold Letter Writing

Pot of Gold Transfer Activity

Word Building

Echo Drawing



Spin and Graph

Leprechaun Letter Match

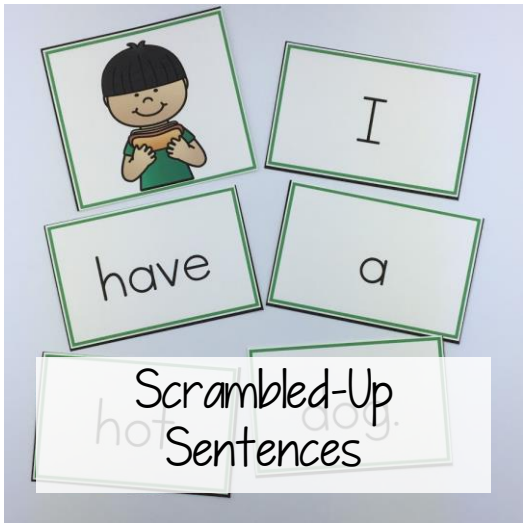
Color-by-Number Or Color-by-Sum

Count and Cover

Number Mats

CVC Word Clip-It Cards

Rainforest Animal Puzzles



Scrambled-Up Sentences

Missing Gold

Push Pin Pages

March
Morning Work Tubs
Supplies Needed

Supplies:
Sand and glitter mixture
Airtight container
Clothespin
Plastic links
Plastic gold coins or another manipulative
Dry-erase markers (orange, green, brown, blue, and red)
Pencil
Paper clip
Yellow playdough
Jumbo push pins
Single hole-punch
Student scissors
Yellow pom-poms
Jumbo plastic tweezers or tongs and/or regular tweezers
Letter beads, stamps, or letter magnets
Pipe cleaners (if using letter beads)
Plastic cubes (red, yellow, green, brown, blue, black, white, and orange)
Plastic pony beads or pom-poms (red, orange, green, purple, yellow, and blue)
OPTIONAL: Rice sensory bin

Preparing the activities:
Dot stickers (or any stickers)
Tape
Cardstock
Regular printer paper
Laminating machine
Scissors or paper trimmer
OPTIONAL: Page protectors

Storing the activities:
Tubs or gallon-sized zipper baggies
OPTIONAL: Small baggies for rainforest animal puzzle pieces

© Katie Roltgen