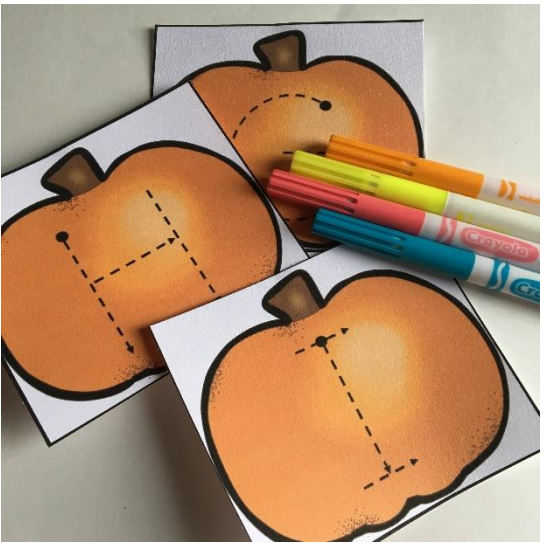
Morning Work Tubs

for October



By Katie Roltgen • resourcesbymrsroltgen.com

About this Resource

Are you looking for an alternative to traditional paper-and-pencil morning work?

Are you looking for hands-on, developmentally-appropriate classroom activities?

Are you doing morning work tubs, but struggling to compile enough activities for all of your students?

You are in luck! I created this set of morning work tub activities to help teachers plan and prepare for morning work tubs. My activities use supplies and manipulatives commonly found in most classrooms, such as playdough, counting bears, linking cubes, and more! Take a peek at the 20 activities included in this pack!

9
8
8
4
10
11
10
7
6
4

leaf
leaf

I i
G
g

red yellow
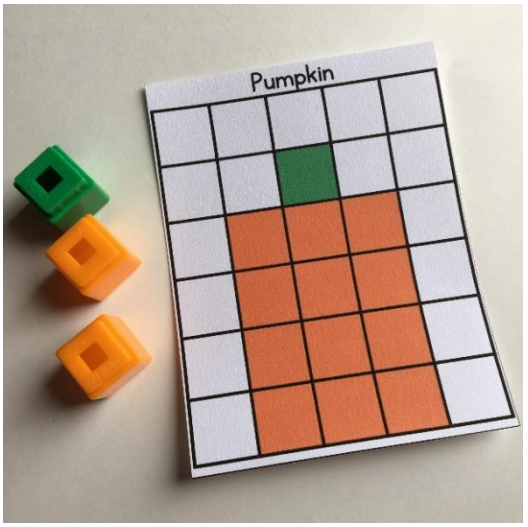
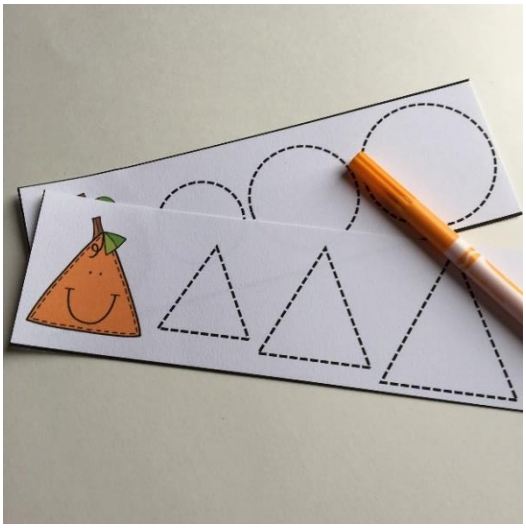
green



Pumpkin

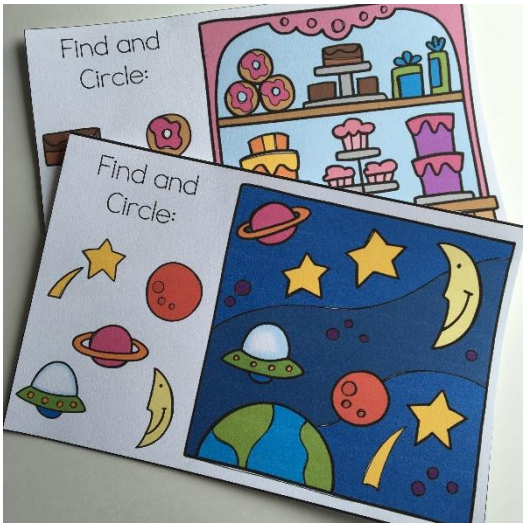


1
2
3
4
5
6
7
8
9

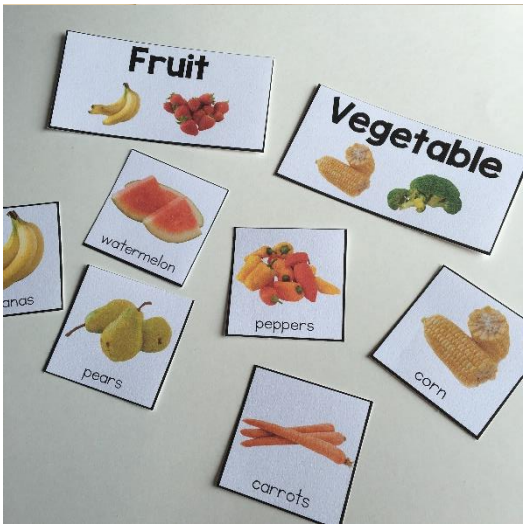
orange
green
yellow
red

2

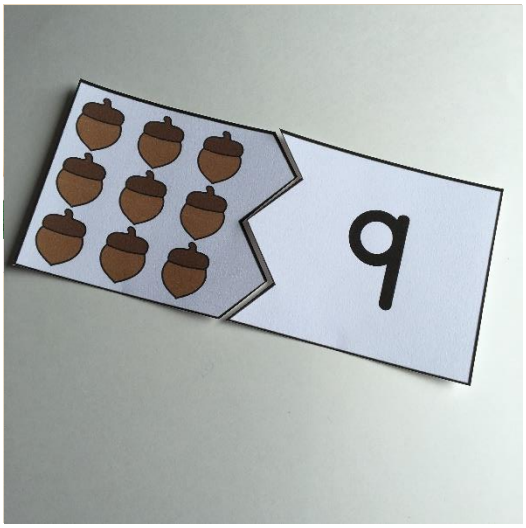
10



Find and Circle:
Find and Circle:



Fruit
Vegetable
watermelon
peppers
pears
corn
carrots

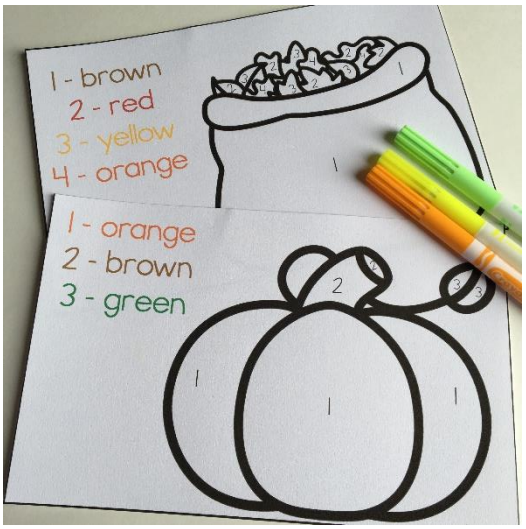


9

2

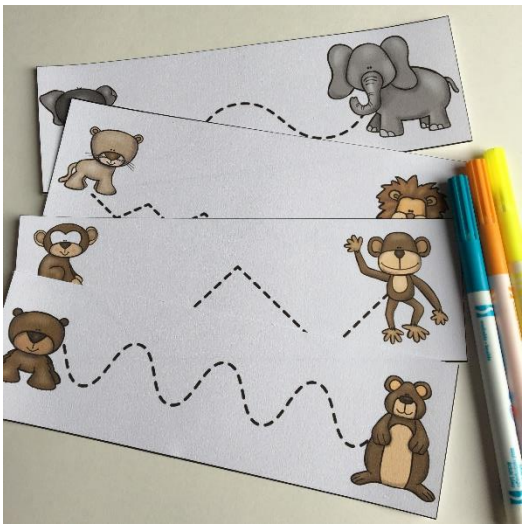
bat
pumpkin
candy

A



1 - brown
2 - red
3 - yellow
4 - orange
1 - orange
2 - brown
3 - green

How to
Rake Leaves



October
Morning Work Tubs
Supplies Needed

Supplies for students to use:
Orange playdough
Playdough (assorted colors)
Linking Cubes (assorted colors)
Dry-erase markers (green, brown, yellow, orange, plus other colors)
Clothespins (at least four)
Plastic links
Dominoes with dot quantities 1-12 (or pick your own)
Pom-Pom Balls (red, blue, orange, green, purple, yellow)
Large tweezers, a scoop, or tongs
Letter magnets
Cookie sheet (I suggest a small-sized cookie sheet)
Pipe cleaners or wax craft sticks

Preparing the activities:
Dot stickers (or any stickers)
Cardstock
Laminating machine
Scissors or paper trimmer
Single hole-punch

Storing the activities:
Tubs or gallon-sized zipper baggies

© Katie Roltgen